

The Ninety-Nines, Inc. Scholarship Opportunity

Each year, hundreds of women seek an opportunity to expand their horizons learning to fly. Whether they are new pilots or experienced pilots desirous of improving their skills or seeking a professional career, many of these women are stopped because of a lack of funding. The Ninety-Nines, Inc. is collecting a registry of scholarships to offer to these aspiring pilots to start or continue their flight training. It is our hope that you, as a pilot, an aviation enthusiast or as a supporter of women, will sponsor a scholarship of a minimum of $500 for one or more of these women.

Attached is a copy of the standard application and instructions to applicant for your review. Below is a form for you to describe the scholarship opportunity that you would like to offer, the amount of the scholarship, any limitations (geographic, type of training, age, etc.) that you would like to impose, and any additional information you would like to receive to help you in making the scholarship award. Please be sure to name your scholarship and, if it is a memorial scholarship, please include a brief statement about the person who you are honoring.

These scholarship announcements will be made at Sun-n-Fun 2017 so our members can plan for the summer flying season where they live. We are asking that you commit to fund your scholarship opportunity at this time; send your scholarship offer (no money needs to be sent) preferably by December 15, 2016 and be prepared to receive application packets around March 15, 2017 for consideration. You or your organization will be the judge as to the recipient of your scholarship using the criteria that you select. You will make the payment arrangements directly to the recipient or her flight training center/instructor. You may choose to make the award immediately to get your pilot flying or you may wait until the "official announcements" are made in April 2017 at Sun-n-Fun.

Thank you for your support of women pilots and The Ninety-Nines, Inc.
